64 PEASANTS DANCING TO THE SOUND OF A PIPE

A pastoral scene, represented under the aspect of a fine evening. Three cows stand in a group in the margin of a clear stream on the left, and a fourth cow is a little beyond them. Near a hovel on the opposite side are two sheep lying down, and an ass standing near them. The labour of the rustic has ceased, and he is now seen, enjoying the lively dance to the sound of a bagpipe; a company of three peasants and the musician occupy the centre of the middle distance. The landscape offers a country diversified with trees and hedges, enclosing meadow grounds

This highly finished picture is dated 1649

A SURPRISE AT CHRISTIE'S.

Frequenterers of the famous rooms in King-street do not associate Mondays with important sales of pictures or drawings, and rarely does a single lot reach £100 on that day. Yesterday, however, a surprise was in store. A miscellaneous sale had been in progress about twenty minutes—the chief picture sold being C. Belkin's "Fair in a Dutch Town," 75gs (Lawrie and Co.)—when a set of twelve illustrations in charcoal and wash, by Fragonard, came up. Despite the great reputation of the Frenchman (Mr. Pierpont Morgan recently paid an enormous sum for a series of his pictures), not much was expected to be reached by these sketches, and the bidding began humbly enough at one guinea. Mr. C. Bernard and Mr. Eyles then suddenly developed the keenest desire for possession, and to the amazement of the company the arithmetical progression of the bids increased in tens and hundreds, until the first-named won at 1.850gs.
